

Eastern Great Lakes Innovative Users Group Annual Conference September 19, 2008

8:45am-9:30am

9:30am-9:45am

9:45am-10:15am

10:15am-10:30am

10:30am-11:15am

11:15am-11:30am

11:30am-12:15pm

12:15pm-1:45pm

1:45pm-2:30pm

2:30pm-2:45pm

2:45pm-3:30pm

3:30 pm

Registration and Continental Breakfast

Welcome and Opening Remarks

Innovative Update – Release 2007

Break

Concurrent Session One

- The Web developer's best friend-Firefox Extensions
- Fund activity reports: They're not just for binders anymore!
- Lessons Learned in getting started with ERM
- The User catalog experience: Mere bling or necessary enhancement, you decide!

Break

Concurrent Session Two

- CSS: Beyond the code
- Beyond our binders: more fun with exported fund activity data
- Project ERM: Approaches for implementing and maintaining an ERM system
- Express Lane and Server Plus (Innovative Interfaces)

Lunch (provided on site)

Lunchtime Program: Content Pro (Innovative Interfaces)

Concurrent Session Three

- Hack the Pac: Advanced WebPAC configuration
- What PERL can do for you
- Blogs, wikis and Innovative software
- Demos [20 minutes each]
 - LibraryThing for libraries
 - Encore (Innovative Interfaces)

Break

Concurrent Session Four

- Demos [20 minutes each]
 - EXCELLent patron data: creating patron records from spreadsheet applications
 - Navigating the Millennium Interface
- Birds of a feather [45 minutes each]
 - Load profilers [BoF]
 - E-Resources colloquy [BoF]
 - Two year schools [BoF]
- Tour of Westerville Public Library

Evaluations, Cookies to go